THE "BELLE OF THE BALL."

Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty."
The reason is easy to find: Rare Perfumes lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place;

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE.

The "Belles" all know our stock of "society odors" is most complete. One thing is certain—you may forget us, but the remembrance of our DELICATE, RARE and LASTING perfumes will linger longer with you than the memory of the "last rose of summer."

Horrible Death!

CAIRO, W. VA., Oct. 19.—The Times publishes the following in its last issue:

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Alice Barker, wife of Zachariah Barker, of Nutter Farm, was burned to death at about 1 o'clock.

She was sitting with her back to the fire, when she discovered that her dress was on fire. She called for help, but no one was in hearing, and the blaze had got under such headway that it was impossible to save herself. After she was burned till the clothes fell from her, and while still trying to put out the fire the news was carried to her sister by one of her little children.

Her sister hastened to her as soon as possible, but when she got to her she was burned so bad that three physicians, who were summoned, could do nothing to save her life.
